Solution Is Near
Chief Sure Omaha Salesman
'Right Man' In Murder;
No Admission Made

SIOUX CITY, Ia. (AP)—Sioux City Police Chief of Detectives Harry J. Gibbons said at a press conference early Thursday he was confident police were near a solution in the slaying of Jimmy Bremmer, 8, Sioux City, whose decomposed body was found Wednesday. The body had been missing since Aug. 31.

Chief Gibbons said police were holding a 50-year-old Omaha music salesman and that he felt sure they held "the right man." Gibbons said of the man "he knows a lot more than he is telling."

Gibbons said, however, there had been no admissions made by the man. Gibbons withheld the name of the man.

The month-long search for 8-year-old Jimmie came to a grim end Wednesday when his mutilated body was found in a pasture only four miles from the lad's home.

Jimmie's distraught mother confirmed police identifications when she was shown a belt and pair of tennis shoes removed from the body after its discovery.

"That's Jimmie's," she wept. Russell White, assistant Sioux City police chief, said holes in the skull indicated the boy's attacker may have used a heavy instrument to bludgeon him to death.

At nearby Cherokee, meantime, it was disclosed that Sioux City police had taken renewed custody of an itinerant salesman previously questioned at length in the case.

The salesman, described by Police Chief James O'Keefe as "psychotic as well as homosexual," has admitted talking with the boy the night he disappeared but steadfastly denies any knowledge of Jimmie's fate.

"After days of questioning in Sioux City he entered the State Mental Health Institute at Cherokee as a voluntary patient to undergo psychiatric treatment."

Taken To Scene
Institute officials said a psychiatrist and two police officers left Cherokee Wednesday afternoon to take the patient to the scene where Jimmie's body was found and observe his reactions. The salesman's identity has not been disclosed.

The lad last was seen about 8 p.m. Aug. 31 when he bid goodnight to a playmate after the two had watched television at a neighbor's. Jimmie then began walking toward the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bremmer. He never arrived.

His parents received no ransom note or communication. His father, a bakery checker, is of modest means.

With discovery of the body, police listed the case as an apparent abduction-slaying. An autopsy was ordered in an effort to fix the specific cause of death. A guard was thrown up to keep sightseers from the area where the body was found while it was combed for clues. No weapon was found near the body itself.

Later, Dr. Thomas L. Coriden, Woodbury County coroner, said an autopsy showed the boy's head was crushed by one or more blows and death was caused by hemorrhaging.

Three highway maintenance men found the body while putting up a snowfence along a little traveled country road about two miles northwest of Sioux City.

The body was about 15 feet in from the roadway fence line and was not visible from the road. The head was lying a few inches from the body which was in an advanced state of decomposition. Police said Jimmie probably came to his death a very short time after his disappearance.

Missile Contract Disclosed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary Stevens announced Wednesday the Army plans to start "modest production" of a new long-range ground-to-ground missile called the "Redstone."

The missile was developed by the same German scientists who produced the V2 rocket of World War II. It is named for Redstone arsenal, the Alabama installation where the Army Ordnance Corps is perfecting the highly classified weapon.

Stevens said limited production will begin under an $855,000 contract to the Chrysler Corp.

At a news conference, Stevens also noted the award to Chrysler of a $160,001,200 contract for Patton M48 medium tanks.

Asked if the announcement of the two contracts to Chrysler had any relation to criticism earlier this week of the heavy volume of military contracts for General Motors Corp., the secretary said there was no relation.

Asst. Secretary Frank Higgins interjected that contract planning takes many months and "we could not run a railroad that way"—meaning by adjusting contract awards to public criticism.

Stevens said the Chrysler M48 bid was about 7 1/2 million lower than that of the next bidder. The other bidders were Fisher Body division of General Motors, current builder of the M48, and the American Locomotive Co.

Base Painters Back On Job After 6 Days
Twenty-three members of Local 18 Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers Union reported to work Wednesday following a six-day lay-off over a labor dispute.

The painters, working on a project at the Lincoln Air Base, had been off work since last Thursday following the firing of a fellow worker who was charged as a labor agitator.

The contractor handling the job, Fred C. Christensen of Omaha, reportedly made the decision to fire the painter, John H. Devereux, Omaha business agent of the painters' union, denied the painter was a labor agitator.

The painters in returning to work Wednesday said they went back to their jobs for "patriotic reasons, because airman will be needing the barracks."

It was understood there was a penalty clause involved in the contract, specifying a definite time in which the painting job was to be completed. Going over the deadline would involve a possible money loss to the contractor.

Secrets Leakage
Probe Takes A Dramatic Turn

PARIS (AP)—The leakage of French official secrets, already threatening to become a major political scandal, took a dramatic turn Wednesday. It was declared one of the key witnesses under investigation has disappeared.

Andre Baranes, formerly a political writer for the fellow traveling Paris newspaper Liberation, was reported not to have been seen since he was released after questioning by counter-espionage officers a week ago.

Baranes was named as an informer for Police Commissioner Jean Dides, who headed an anti-Communist intelligence network until he was suspended last week after being caught with secret defense documents he was not supposed to have.

Quizzed For Hours

Questioned for hours on the night of Sept. 21, Baranes arranged a 2:30 a.m. meeting with his wife near the Paris Opera.

"He was very depressed, and we walked the streets until 7 o'clock in the morning," Mrs. Baranes said.

She reported her husband has not been home since and she has no idea of his whereabouts.

Maj. Jean de Resseguier, who is investigating the complicated case for the government, has summoned Baranes to appear before him Thursday. If he fails to appear, a warrant for his arrest may be issued.

News that secret information has been leaking from the National Defense Council into Communist hands broke just six days ago and has created a sensation. Investigators have disclosed the leaks started during the previous government headed by Joseph Laniel and have continued since Premier Pierre Mendes-France took over in June.

Other Developments

There have been these developments: Dides Tuesday night told news correspondents he had evidence that Roger Wybot, top counter-espionage official in France, was himself a Communist sympathizer.

The suspended police commissioner said he had given evidence to this effect based on a card from the Communist party files to Resseguier, the examining magistrate.

Wybot retorted the card Dides introduced was a forgery which he thought the suspended commissioner had forged himself. Then Wybot went to the Paris Civil Court and demanded five million francs ($12,285) in damages.

Is Lined Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and France announced agreement late Wednesday on a broad new plan to save Indochina from further Communist conquest. American officials said it called for more than 700 million dollars annually in U. S. Aid.

The French agreed they would keep military forces in southern Viet Nam for the time being, withdrawing troops from their 10 divisions only gradually—as native forces are built up to fill the gap.

The agreement was announced in general terms in a joint communique by France and the United States, capping three days of conferences here. American officials said representatives of the three Indochinese states—Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia—had been consulted and were "very much pleased" with the new arrangements.

Although details of the plan are yet to be worked out, the significance of it is that American officials apparently have found a new conviction that chances are good that further Communist conquest in Indochina can be blocked, and they are willing to pour more millions of American money into the effort.

Concern Expressed
After the Geneva truce agreement on Indochina ended the fighting there, but gave northern Viet Nam to the Communists, some Western sources expressed concern whether the rest of Indochina—notably southern Viet Nam—could be held for the free world.

There was a question whether the United States should continue to spend millions on what might have been a hopeless cause.

As a result of the three days of conferences ending late Wednesday, however, American officials were said to believe a solid basis has been arrived at for bolstering the three Red-threatened states.

The communique strongly emphasized the contention of both France and the United States "to support the complete independence of Cambodia, Laos and Viet Nam . . . to assist (them) in their effort so safeguard their freedom."

Dulles' And Eden's
Action Is Solving
NATO Puzzle

LONDON (AP)—The United States and Britain, with a threat and a promise, Wednesday night brought jittery France near a long sought agreement to rearm West Germany in defense against Communist attack.

First Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned the nine-nation conference discussing the problem that American troops may have to be pulled out of Europe if France rejects plans to line up German land, air and sea forces within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Next Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden announced a British offer to keep four divisions, plus a tactical Air Force, on the European mainland indefinitely provided the conference agreed on bringing a rearmament Germany into NATO.

The British-American broadside appeared carefully timed to assure the success of the conference, which had been called to figure out ways of freeing West Germany and rearming her as a full and equal 15th member of NATO.

Adenauer Confident
West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, as soon as the nine foreign ministers ended their session, confidently told newsmen he thought the conference would end in success Thursday night.

And a high American source indicated Dulles expects the windup within a day or two. This informant said the secretary has ordered his plane to be ready to fly him back to Washington Sunday.

Adenauer, 78, told the newsmen: "I think we can take a deep breath if the rest of the conference takes its expected course."

That course was unofficially indicated by officials attending the talks:

Occupation To End
1. The United States, Britain and France probably will announce their intention to end the occupation of West Germany, restoring to the federal republic virtually full control over its internal and external affairs. The Germans in turn will issue a counter-declaration offering to join NATO and a new seven-nation European alliance—where they will be allowed to rearm within clearly marked limits.

2. The Brussels alliance of 1948—a 50-year British-French-Belgian-Dutch-Luxembourg pact against aggression—will be revised to admit West Germany and Italy, both enemies of the Allies in World War II. Experts of the seven nation's will be assigned to write a protocol—or supplement—to the treaty giving the alliance some powers to control the arms and armies of its continental members.

Frightening Specter
French Premier Pierre Mendes-France wanted a seven power European armaments authority to form an arms pool and guard against any runaway German rearmament. The specter of a new German aggression frightens France, thrice invaded in the last 83 years.

Other countries attending the conference, including the United States and Canada, insisted that a looser system of curbs on rearmament be applied by the NATO commanders and agencies.

There were reports a compromise plan was emerging that would merge the best features of the French proposal with the ideas of the other allies.

FINLETTER WARNS AMERICA:

Russ Headed For Atomic Superiority

... Sneak Attack Could Raze U.S. Cities

WASHINGTON (INS) — Former Air Force Secretary Thomas K. Finletter declared Wednesday that at the present rate of building Russia will gain atomic-hydrogen air superiority over the U. S. in 1956.

Even if the U. S. becomes "considerably more alert" and increases its air power to maintain superiority, Finletter said, the Soviets will be able to "destroy our cities and industries in a sneak attack."

my head" that the threat of the H-bomb might bring an effective disarmament system, but added that such a program does not have the support today even of the U. S. public.

He said Americans are not willing to surrender sovereignty over their own armed forces and that he believes this is the main reason why the government does not press more vigorously for an effective plan.

Gen. Van Fleet Cites 'Great' War Mistake

The former secretary described the "coming" Russian ascendancy as "Phase Two" of the atomic race and said it will be followed quickly in the early 1960s by "Phase Three" in which both the U. S. and the Soviets will have inter-continental guided missiles with hydrogen warheads.

Finletter, who rose to prominence advocating a 70-group air force and then served four years as head of the service, set forth his views in a book entitled "Power and Policy," published by Harcourt, Brace & Co.

Billions More Needed

In a sw-eeping demand for more vigorous governmental action in the face of the H-bomb's ability to destroy all life, he said:

1. That to prevent the Soviets from gaining air superiority would require at least six billion dollars a year more than the 12 billions allowed for the U. S. Air Force by the last Congress.

2. That the U. S. should advocate a complete, compulsory disarmament system under United Nations control. This, he said, would be a "shocker" to the U. S. public. He said Americans do not realize how much U. S. sovereignty would have to be surrendered.

3. That use of the A-bomb in a "local or part-way" war would be "a blunder of the first order." Finletter added that threats to use the atom will not block the Chinese Reds and said new policies are needed in the Far East.

Possibly the most noteworthy features of Finletter's book are the speed with which he believes the Russians will gain "absolute" air atomic power and the slim hope he holds out for avoiding an atomic-hydrogen war.

Could Be Avoided

He said that Russian atomic superiority could be avoided if Congress would appropriate 18 to 20 billion dollars a year in new money for the Air Force. The last outlay was 12 billion dollars.

He declared that the Russians may or may not start a war when they have enough bombs to obliterate American cities, but that a U. S. policy based on the assumption that they may not would be "inexcusable."

At the least, he said, the Soviets will pursue a more aggressive foreign policy and show more willingness to risk a general war.

He said he "can't get it out of WASHINGTON (INS) — Retired Gen. James A. Van Fleet testified Wednesday, "We still could achieve victory in Korea" and that failure to divert large forces to that area from Europe was one of America's "greatest mistakes."

The former 8th Army commander singled out Gen. Omar N. Bradley, former chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, ex-Army chief of staff, for criticism in connection with overall military strategy.

He said Bradley and Collins were "oriented entirely to Europe and couldn't see deployment in strength in the Far Pacific."

In an appearance before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the retired officer gave this other testimony:

1. State Department representatives tried to force Greece to take Communists into its government by threatening to withhold American aid.

'Major Step'

2. The U. S. should break diplomatic relations with Russia "as a major dramatic step in an effort to avoid World War III."

3. The U. S. should withdraw from the United Nations if Red China is seated, and have U. N. "moved out of this country."

4. Red China "must have" had assurance that the U. S. would not hit its home territory when Chinese troops entered the Korean fighting.

Answering a question, Van Fleet said he could only guess that the Reds obtained this assurance "through some embassy source in Peiping." The U. S. does not maintain diplomatic relations with Red China.

5. "It was a tragic mistake" to reject Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's offer to send Nationalist Chinese troops to Korea since this would have battle-tested Chiang's Formosan forces.

6. "There were many opportunities when we (U. N. forces) could have advanced great distances" following air strikes at the Reds in Korea "but there were no orders to do so."

7. He hopes to submit a report on military conditions in the Far East to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson Thursday.

Hospital Action Coming Soon For Beatrice

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb.—The Beatrice hospital picture has brightened following the decision of the Community Hospital Committee after a meeting with members of the boards of the Lutheran and Mennonite Hospitals to support the Mennonite Deaconess Hospital building program.

The committee will present a letter informing the State Hospital Advisory Council of its decision at a meeting in Lincoln Saturday.

Dr. E. A. Rogers of Lincoln, chairman of the State Hospital Advisory Council, said Wednesday night that it appeared the way had been opened toward doing something about a hospital in Beatrice.

"It appears," said Dr. Rogers, "that the committee has a proposal which in my opinion meets at least some of the requirements calling for a unified program asked by the council when it delayed action on allocating Hill-Burton funds for the Beatrice hospital."

According to Dr. Rogers the possibility is that the council will allocate a "token amount of Hill-Burton funds to the Mennonite hospital. Only $73,000 remains to be allocated in the funds and it is unlikely the council would allocate all of them to one project."

"The allocation if given would probably be a token amount leaving a reserve for emergencies which may come up before additional funds are appropriated by Congress next year," he said.

Such an allotment would probably be contingent on more funds to be allocated next year, and would give the Mennonite Hospital priority over any new projects, Dr. Rogers pointed out.

Floodways Plus Reservoirs Are Urged For Floyd

LE MARS, Ia. (AP) — A combination of floodways and upstream reservoirs was recommended Wednesday to protect the Floyd River valley from future flood damage.

Col. Thomas J. Hayes III, Omaha district engineer, outlined the proposals in a report prepared for a meeting called by Rep. Charles Hoeven (R-Ia.) to consider the possibilities for curbing the Floyd.

The Floyd, for its size, produced one of the most costly floods in the Missouri Basin—the 1953 disaster which claimed 14 lives and caused damages amounting to 25 million dollars. Sioux City, alone suffered 23 million dollars in damages and all 14 deaths occurred there.

This flood, worst of 60 on record, was precipitated by a rainfall the afternoon and evening of June 7 over the Floyd basin which brought up to 11 inches of rain, one place measuring a fall of 4.2 inches in 30 minutes.

Blind School Meeting Held In Neb. City

Lincoln Star Special

NEBRASKA CITY — A meeting between the president of the Parents of Blind Children of Nebraska, the director of the State Services for the Blind, and representatives of the Nebraska City Chamber of Commerce was held here Wednesday.

No action was planned at the meeting, which was held to exchange the facts concerning the various parties and to achieve a greater unanimity of opinion.

R. E. Ramig of North Platte is president of the parents organization and Harry Hines director of the state agency. Both described the meeting as satisfactory and said that all parties declared their objective to be obtaining the best possible education for the blind children.

The parents group has recommended the school would better serve the children if it were moved to Kearney. Educational facilities available and transportation advantages are listed as the prime reasons for the recommendation.

Army Cancels Plans For Cutting Strength

2 New Divisions To Be Created

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Army cancelled plans Wednesday for cutting its strength, announced creation of two new divisions and said five training divisions will be converted into fighting units.

A Pentagon source revealed that plans have been washed out to reduce the Army to about one million men and said a force of approximately 1,200,000 will be maintained instead.

The change in goals was revealed as an aftermath of President Eisenhower's conference in Denver Tuesday with Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army Chief of Staff.

Stevens and Ridgway told a news conference Wednesday of the plans for the new divisions and also announced that overseas rotation will be based on whole divisions rather than individual personnel.

24 Divisions

This contemplates replacement of two National Guard divisions which are soon to be returned to state control. The net effect will be 24 divisions instead of the present 19.

After Tuesday's meeting at the Summer White House, Ridgway remarked that development of more powerful atomic-hydrogen weapons has increased instead of reduced the need for armed forces manpower.

New divisions, replacing the guard units, will be formed from regimental combat teams. One will be stationed at Ft. Amador, Canal Zone, and the other at Fort Richardson, Alaska.

The division headquartered in the Canal Zone will include regiments there, in Puerto Rico and at Ft. Benning, Ga. The Ft. Richardson division will include troops already stationed in various parts of Alaska.

'Gyroscope'

The division-rotation plan, to get under way next summer and known as "Operation Gyroscope," will assure enlisted men that they usually will remain in the same division throughout their service—go overseas with their own units, and return to the same bases in the United States.

Overseas tours of a division will be 33 months, and those in the U.S. will be 31. Draftees with only two years to serve will join a division six months before its goes overseas, and will be replaced during the overseas tour by men given basic training by a state-side division.

Converting five of the six present training divisions to combat divisions, Ridgway explained, is principally a matter of organization and will not make them combat-ready.

Although the plan will leave the number of actual combat-ready divisions at 17, the same number as at present, Ridgway said, the overall combat effectiveness will be strengthened without additional manpower.

No change in overseas strength is planned, Ridgway said. There now are nine divisions overseas—five in Europe, three in the Far East and one in Honolulu.

Rescue Action

PANAMA CITY (INS)—The U. S. Air Force rescue squadron based in the Panama Canal Zone Wednesday flew to Honduras which is hit by disastrous floods. The U. S. embassy at Tegucigalpa, the Honduras capital, reported that "help is urgently needed" for the Honduras government and to protect United States lives and property.

4-Year-Old Elevator Suit Is Dismissed

The four-year-old Westinghouse Electric Company's elevator suit against the Stuart Investment Company has been dismissed in Lancaster County District Court upon stipulation of the parties.

In the joint dismissal of the claim and counter-claim in the case, it was understood the parties had reached a compromise settlement out-of-court. The amount was undisclosed.

In its original claim, Westinghouse sought $71,664.74 as due on a 1947 contract for the installation of four elevators in the Stuart Building.

It had claimed $26,253 due on the unadjusted contract and $45,412.74 in price adjustments.

The Stuart company had counter-claimed damages resulting from acceleration clauses in the contract because of plaintiff's alleged failure to promptly furnish material and labor as available and undue delay in work completion.

NATO DOLLARS CLIMB ABOVE $10 BILLION

WASHINGTON (INS)—Gold and dollar reserves of the European members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization rose above 10 billion dollars in September, Foreign Operations Administrator Harold Stassen said Wednesday.

"All of the NATO countries and Germany are on their own feet in the economic sense," the foreign aid chief told a news conference. "Economic aid has ended with a position of great strength in Europe."

Stassen figured the increase in Western Europe's reserves at two billion dollars last year and estimated at least another two billion for this year.

East-West trade with the Soviet bloc pulled about 250 million dollars of gold into the West's reserves last year, Stassen said, but it is impossible to forecast what will happen in that respect this year because it "involves a decision in the Kremlin."

However, he predicted the Soviet Union will have difficulty with its trade unless it ships more gold West by December—"They are under payments pressure."

THE GROWING TREND TO LINCOLN

Smart to look at—but wait till you drive it!

Looking at a Lincoln is like looking at a beautiful, ground-hugging contemporary home. Both say—at a glance—style, clean design, comfort.

But to know Lincoln, you must live with it. All the words in the dictionary cannot reveal to you the personality of the Lincoln in action.

So we invite you to drive this fine car.

We hand you the keys. You slide into that (optional) 4-way power seat and adjust it exactly to your liking. Then you head, easily, quietly out into traffic and onto the open highway.

You'll notice a subtle combination of mighty yet gentle power. You cruise as you will. Nudge the pedal. Surge ahead. You're alone—out in front of the traffic. And you're always in relaxed yet complete control.

"This is a different kind of ride," we predict you will say. And if you're of an engineering mind you'll know the reasons: ball-joint front wheel suspension (only this fine car has it), the new 4-barrel carburetor, the new automatic spark control, the precision balanced chassis, and the largest braking area in the field—220 square inches! Plus all the optional power features that make driving almost effortless—power steering, and power brakes, for example.

We have a new Lincoln or Lincoln Capri waiting for you. Wait till you drive it!

Don't miss the big television hit, "TOAST OF THE TOWN" with Ed Sullivan, Sunday evening, 7:00 to 8:00. Station KMTV, Channel 3.

POSTCARD

The enterprise of our national airlines is truly amazing to behold. And with no further ado, behold. Who should get me on the pipe the other day but Mr. Clay Bernard whose Western Air Lines range the skies from the West Coast to Minneapolis.

"We are deeply grateful to you," said Mr. Bernard with a slight sob.

"Why, Clay," I said. "Pull yourself together man. Your gratitude is a shining light but—"

"As I said," Mr. Bernard interrupted, "we are deeply grateful and we intend to do something nice for you. We are going to let you adopt a stewardess."

"You mean one of those fluffy things that run up and down the aisle with the coffee," I said. "All to myself?"

"Be at lunch at noon," said Mr. Bernard.

I was there at 11:30. If you are early, you can always drop in and get a haircut is what I always say.

Now as a timid but regular passenger in the wild blue yonder, I carry on great friendships with the young ladies of the air world.

For one thing, I have learned not to lean on the tray when they are pouring milk. If the tray hangs over the edge just a teensy bit, it flips the milk right in her face. Did you know that? True.

It turned out that Western was graduating 18 of these young ladies. And it fell upon 18 gentlemen of the press to sponsor them. (There are a lot of fringe benefits in this business.)

My young lady turned out to be a bristly thing of 22 years. She was blonde and dressed in a trim green uniform. She said she weighed 113 pounds. She was from Seattle and was Swedish.

She had been to school for a month in Los Angeles.

Her name was Carolyn Johnson. I asked her if she knew that stewardesses average three-and-a-half passenger proposals a year. She said she was doing all right before she became a stewardess.

"Then why do you do this?" I said.

"Oh, I guess because I like to fly. And I like people. We had to study SO hard. We had to learn all about engines—"

"They don't let you fly those big silver birds, do they?" I cried. "Of course not," she said. "But we have to learn about engines and pressurization—"

"Why?"

"Well," she said, "if a passenger asks you what that thing is out on the wing, you ought to know. Don't you think so?"

Several Western officials then rose. They spoke highly of stewardesses and well of the airline. They told several little stories.

We were then asked to rise and pin the silver wings upon our adopted ladies. This sounds simple. But actually it is a little nerve-racking. A man without depth perception could injure somebody. The grateful Mr. Bernard shook my hand warmly. He said he would like to present me with a box of cigars. Miss Johnson, he said, must return to Los Angeles.

"You mean we don't get to take them home with us?" I said. "Clay, this is a dark day for press relations."

"The girl has a career," said Mr. Bernard. "You wouldn't want to stand in her way, would you?" "I refuse to answer that on the Fifth Amendment," I said.

Western giveth and Western taketh away. What kind of gratitude is that?"

Pair Plead Guilty To Attempted Jail Break At Gering

GERING, Neb. (AP) — Two men pleaded guilty in County Court here to attempted jail break and two women pleaded guilty to aiding the attempt. The attempt was foiled by boys playing football on the courthouse lawn. They heard sawing noises and notified Sheriff Steve Warrick.

The men were Elbert Wilburn Day, 31, Casper, Wyo., and Gilbert Bruce Dryden, 19, Hill City, Minn. The women were Valedine Dryden, 19, Fremont, cousin of Dryden; and Mary Jane Capron, 20, Gering, described by Sheriff Warrick as Dryden's girl friend.

The women pleaded guilty to charges of smuggling hack-saw blades into the jail.

Dryden, said by the sheriff to be an Army deserter, was being held on a forgery charge, and Day on a no account check charge. Sheriff Warrick said Day has served time in Texas and in federal prisons.

Victim Performed Several Acts After Shooting Himself

VERDON, Neb. (AP) — After Simon Skates, 59, shot himself in the heart with a rifle, officers said, he apparently ejected the empty shell, carefully set the rifle on end in a corner and then laid down on his bed to die.

Acting Coroner B. T. Clark, Sheriff Vern D. Atkins and Deputy Life Stewart reconstructed the probable course of events from evidence in the room.

County Property Sale Issue Goes On York's Ballot

YORK, Neb. (AP) — York County voters will decide Nov. 2 whether the county farm property should be sold.

The farm once included 80 acres but 70 acres were converted to use as a county fairgrounds in 1949. The county board has voted to sell, with voters' approval, the remaining 10 acres and the house.

The special election will be held in connection with the general election.

"AT THE CROSSROADS OF LINCOLN"

Delaware Sentiment Against Integration Grows

Class Boycott Continued By White Pupils

MILFORD, Del. (INS)—Heated sentiment against racial integration in public schools mushroomed throughout lower Delaware Wednesday as white students continued to boycott classes in increasing numbers.

The boycott started Monday at the Milford High School where 10 Negro pupils were admitted. Less than a third of the white pupils have attended classes since. On Tuesday, most of the white pupils stayed home at Lincoln, seven miles away.

The sympathy boycott struck again Wednesday at Gumboro, where only three pupils out of a normal attendance of 106 attended classes, after parents had been told by school district chairman Preston Niblett:

"I ask all people who are sending their children to Gumboro school to keep them home until further notice."

Meanwhile, the National Association for the Advancement of White People continued to whip up supporters by scheduling rallies throughout the area which witnessed the burning of a wooden cross on a field across from the Milford High School.

Action Deferred
CINCINNATI, O. (INS)—A Federal District Court in Cincinnati Wednesday deferred action on the question of ending segregation in the Hillsboro, O., elementary schools.

Judge John H. Druffel said he would not act until two weeks after the U. S. Supreme Court makes its policy recommendations on how segregation should be brought to an end. Supreme Court hearings on the matter will not be held until December.

The case was the first test in a northern state since the Supreme Court ruling against segregation.

Opposers Invited
DENVER (INS)—Patients at National Jewish Hospital in Denver issued an invitation to residents of Milford, Del., and groups opposed to integration in public schools to visit the hospital and see how all races and faiths live together in harmony.

The invitation was issued in an open letter by the Patients' Council of the Famous, Free, non-Sectarian Hospital for Tuberculosis and Chest Diseases. The letter said:

"Tuberculosis does not draw the color line. In our fight for health we have learned the color or faith of a roommate, schoolmate, meal companion, doctor or nurse has nothing whatsoever to do with our recovery . . ."

Brawl Broken Up
NEW YORK (INS)—Police were needed Wednesday to break up a brawl between members of two rival unions at the Hotel New Yorker where one of the labor groups is holding a convention.

The unions involved were the CIO Electrical Workers and the unaffiliated United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America. The independent UE, which is holding its annual convention, was disenfranchised by the CIO in 1949 on the ground that it was Communist-dominated.

Walking To School By Way Of Street

Proponents of a sidewalk along the west side of Winthrop Rd. from Plymouth to Van Dorn have based their argument on the need for a walk to accommodate children going and coming from Sheridan School. Walking down Winthrop in the street on their way to Sheridan are (left to right), Mickey Johnson, 10, Randy Nelson, 9, and Murray Johnson, 9. The Johnson boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson of 2676 Colonial Dr. The Nelson boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nelson, 2697 Colonial Dr. Opponents to the walk have maintained that children living on Colonial Dr. can walk down Colonial to Puritan and cross over to Rathbone Rd. where there is a sidewalk leading directly to the school door. With the exception of crossing Winthrop, which would be necessary even with a sidewalk there, the children could thus get to and from school over a combination of dead end streets and sidewalks, opponents maintain. Idaho Hunt Pressed For Body Of Man Said Slain By Life Termer

BOISE, Ida. (INS)—Searchers on horseback and afoot redoubled efforts to find remains of a man whose murder has been confessed by a life-term convict who claims that the victim's ghost haunts him.

The convict, Kenneth Raymond Hastings, 31, told Warden L. E. Clapp of the Idaho Penitentiary that he shot and killed a fellow member of his robber gang, Ivan Baker, 30, near Arco, Ida., in 1951.

Hastings asked for the death penalty, claiming that is the only way he can get away from Baker's ghost, and threatened suicide if he is not hanged.

Searchers failed to find Baker's remains on the first day of their hunt in Butte County of southern Idaho, but Clapp felt Hastings was telling the truth.

The convict said he shot Baker because the latter was trying to force a female member of their robber gang into prostitution.

Larry Rex Crouse, 23, of Beatrice was sentenced to one-to-two years in the Penitentiary for breaking and entering.

Crouse had pleaded guilty to the charge involving a skelly service station at 14 and Q on Sept. 26 in which about $15 and two cans of soft-freeze were taken.

Judge Harry Spencer noted that Crouse's record did not warrant probation, the defendant having served in 1949 a reformatory term for larceny from a car.

Democrat Chief Sticks To Blast At Nixon

WASHINGTON (U)—The playback Wednesday of a tape recording showed the Associated Press misquoting Vice President Nixon in a speech at Huron, S.D., Sept. 18. The AP quoted Nixon as saying the Eisenhower administration has "kicked the Communists out of government not by the hundreds, but by the thousands."

The tape recording, made by a Huron radio station, had Nixon saying: "We're kicking the Communists and fellow travelers and security risks out of the government, not by the hundreds but by the thousands."

Nixon repeated this quotation in two campaign speeches in Massachusetts.

'Falsehood'

It was on the basis of the original AP dispatch from Huron that Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell accused Nixon of uttering "an outright falsehood." Mitchell made the accusation in a speech last Saturday night at Manchester, N.H., and repeated it in a radio interview here last Sunday. Nixon told a Boston news conference Tuesday that Mitchell was "shooting from the hip before he gets the facts."

Mitchell said Wednesday in a statement prepared before the playback of the Huron speech that "on the basis of either quotation attributed to him, Mr. Nixon is not being honest with the American people."

Of the Nixon statement about Communists, fellow travelers and security risks, Mitchell said: "This statement falls short of the standard of honesty we should expect from the man occupying the second highest office in the land. Remember that federal employes can be called security risks for a variety of offenses which have not the remotest connection with Communists or subversion.

'Dishonest Game'

"So, when Mr. Nixon conglomerates Communists, fellow travelers and security risks in one group he is playing a dishonest game of words to give a false impression. It is as though a police chief boasted about capturing 'thousands of murderers, kidnapers and parking violators,' when his records showed one suspected murder, one suspected kidnaper and 2,000 parking violators."

"If Mr. Nixon wants to give the public a true impression, he will stop playing the word game and say specifically how many Communists, if any, and how many security risks they have found—breaking the security risks down into categories," Mitchell added: "I cannot escape the impression that this administration wants to create a bogus campaign issue rather than tell the public the truth about Communists and security risks."

A spokesman for the Democratic National Committee, informed by the AP of its error in the original Huron dispatch, said Mitchell would stand on his statement.

First Pound Home Being Razed

The first Lincoln home of the internationally known Pound family soon will be only a memory. S. B. Pound moved his family into this house, located at the northwest corner of 16th and P, in 1874, one year after it was built. They lived here until 1892, when they moved to their new home at 1632 L. Dr.

Louise Pound, University of Nebraska professor emerita of English, and her sister, Olivia Pound, a former instructor at Lincoln High School, still live in the L Street house. Their famous brother, Dr. Roscoe Pound, retired dean of the Harvard Law School, now makes his home in Watertown, Mass. (Star Photo)

You who feel strongly about the performance of a floor polish will welcome improved Hard Gloss Glo-Coat. It's the latest thing from Johnson's Wax! Nothing before has let you keep floors so lovely, shiny, simple to clean. Johnson's Wax experts created this new formula to resist busy feet and regular damp-moppings. It's so tough it lets you cut down on the number of times you wax each year. Its finish is so much harder that your floors stay much brighter for six, seven, even up to ten weeks! Accept no substitutes!

You can test floor polishes exactly the way the experts do it at Johnson's Wax famous Research Tower. Apply Hard Gloss Glo-Coat to half a kitchen floor and put any substitute brand on the other half.

A dozen kitchen parties won't give your floor the rugged wear the Johnson's Wax test floor gets daily. For six weeks, hundreds walk on it and it's regularly damp-mopped. Then comes the Gloss Meter test...

This photoelectric device proves eyes don't deceive. Just as your own floor will show after weeks of traffic and damp-mopping, Hard Gloss Glo-Coat scores a brightness rating of sixteen... the substitute polish a four.

Polish Escapee Says Death Sentence Given Field

... Grim Prison Life Described

WASHINGTON (INS)—Former Communist Polish secret police official Josef Swiatlo revealed Wednesday that a top Communist Party leader had pronounced the equivalent of a death sentence on Hermann Field, one of two American brothers who disappeared five years ago.

Swiatlo, who fled to the West last December and was given asylum in the U.S. painted a grim picture of Hermann Field's life in a Polish prison cell.

The short, stocky Polish escapee was presented dramatically Tuesday at a news conference and talked to newsmen again Wednesday.

The former Red official said that Field became so desperate during the long months of his imprisonment, that on at least two occasions he went on hunger strikes and in a fit of desperation tried to hang himself from the bars of his cell with the sheet from his bunk.

Lives Too Long

Swiatlo said Boleslaw Bierut, then president of Poland and now first secretary of the Polish Communist Party, once told him that Hermann Field "lives too long."

This was early in 1953 when Field wrote a letter, intercepted by his Communist captors, to the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw.

Swiatlo said: "You understand that such an opinion expressed by Bierut was equivalent to a death sentence."

Nevertheless, he added, to the best of his knowledge, when he left Poland last December—Field was still alive.

Although Field had not been convicted or sentenced to prison, Swiatlo said the American was held incommunicado so that the U.S. Embassy would not learn of his presence.

Guard Found Him

It was after Field had asked for information regarding his wife and children and had been refused, that he went on a hunger strike, according to the man who was charged with watching him.

Swiatlo said he persuaded the prisoner to drop the hunger strike, but a few months later, he attempted to hang himself by cutting his shirt into strips and making a rope which he fastened to the cell bars.

A guard discovered him before he was dead.

Later on, Field again went on a hunger strike which he maintained for 14 days before his Communist captors decided to force feed him by placing a rubber hose down his throat.

He said that Hermann Field's brother, Noel, was pale and very thin, and Herta, Hermann's wife, was a "half-skeleton" when he saw them in Budapest.

State Health Lab To Stop 'Rh' Tests

The State Board of Health was informed that the health department's laboratory will withdraw gradually from making tests for the "rh" blood factor.

Dr. E. A. Rogers, state health director, said the move was made necessary by a cut in federal aid. The "rh" tests are the most expensive which the department has been making, and their discontinuance will affect the small number of persons, Dr. Rogers explained.

The tests in the past have been made at the physician's request. They are made mostly in pre-natal cases.

The move has no relation to the pre-marital blood tests, which are required by law and which will continue to be made as usual, Dr. Rogers explained.

The board also moved to strengthen department regulations pertaining to disposal of sewage by municipalities.

The board approved new language for a regulation of ten years' standing which now will read:

"No sewage . . . in untreated condition shall be permitted to flow into any waters or upon any land in any manner determined by the department to be detrimental to the quality of the receiving body of water."

In Effect Since '45

The rule in effect since 1945 had provided that there could be no discharge excepting through a properly designed and operated treatment plant.

Water pollution control legislation still is needed to spell out what constitutes a violation and provide penalties, Dr. E. A. Rogers, state health director, said.

A legislative committee is working now on proposed anti-pollution legislation.

Baritone Tibbett Scraps With Cops

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Veteran operatic baritone Lawrence Tibbett indicated Wednesday that he plans to fight the misdemeanor drunk driving charge that embroiled him in a squabble with police and landed him in jail.

Tibbett, jailed after a minor accident, obtained a delay until Friday before entering his plea to the charge so that his attorney can interview witnesses.

The 57-year-old singer, who has not appeared professionally for several years, said the accident occurred at "one of those intersections where 'I' signals are confusing—I thought I was in the right."

The accident occurred in the suburb of Studio City, where, police said, Tibbett's expensive foreign sport car ran through a traffic signal and crashed into a truck, slightly injuring truck driver Ralph Schwalm, 34.

Ag Co-ops 'Logical Defense'

Farmer co-operatives were pictured here Wednesday night as a "logical and necessary" defense against current economic trends. The picture was drawn by Howard A. Cowden of Kansas City, president and general manager of Consumers Co-operative Association, wholesale and manufacturing co-operative with which some 300 local co-ops in Nebraska are affiliated.

"Farmers, operating individually, cannot hope to compete in an economy dominated by giant corporations, many of which are growing much bigger in the current wave of mergers," Cowden said. He spoke at a dinner meeting at the Lincoln Hotel attended by some 225 Co-op members from various parts of eastern and central Nebraska.

When Consumers Co-operative Association was formed 25 years ago, he recalled, the farm population of the nation was 26 per cent of the total. Today it is only about 13.5 per cent.

The system of wholesale and retail co-operatives of which CCA is a part, he said, helps strengthen farmers' voice in the face of this decline in numerical strength.

Contrary to the charges of some critics of co-operatives, he said, farmer co-ops have not grown as fast as the economy as a whole. "They have not gone as far as they should go to be an effective balance wheel in an economy where bigness is the rule."

Consumers Co-operative Association, operating three oil refineries, four fertilizer plants, a paint plant, feed mill and other manufacturing facilities, had a total volume of approximately $84,000,000 for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, Nebraska members were told at a discussion session in the afternoon.

Its newest facility is a $16,000,000 nitrogen fertilizer plant at Lawrence, Kan., from which the first shipment of ammonium nitrate was made last week to the co-operative at Gordon, Neb.

Rail Commission Has Jurisdiction In Rate Complaint

Four Arthur County families can take their rate complaint against the Panhandle Rural Electric Membership Assn. to the State Railway Commission under a ruling by the attorney general's office.

When Arthur Countians first approached the commission, the members were not sure whether they had jurisdiction.

An opinion by Assistant Atty. Gen. Homer Hamilton says that commission has jurisdiction, on the basis that the electric association is a private organization.

The complaint was lodged by Robert Sizer of Flats who contended the association set its rates too high.

The association cut off the electricity to the Sizer farm and to the farms of Orville Thompson, Donald Thompson, and George Reichert.

Davis To Address C.C. Luncheon On Agency's Work

Clarence A. Davis, Lincoln resident now serving as under secretary of the Department of Interior, will address a Chamber of Commerce public affairs luncheon Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Davis was called to Washington last year to act as solicitor for the department. Recently, he was named to the under secretary's post—second in command under Secretary Douglas McKay.

Davis will discuss the work of the department and the effect it has had on the western states and the nation as a whole, according to Elsworth F. DuTeau, chairman of the Chamber public affairs committee.

The luncheon will be open to the public but reservations must be made in advance at the Chamber office.

President's Health Is 'Excellent'

IKE CELEBRATES; PLAYS ANOTHER ROUND OF GOLF

From Press Dispatches
DENVER — President Eisenhower received an "excellent" rating Wednesday on his recent medical check-up and celebrated with another dose of the medicine his doctor has ordered to keep him in top shape—a round of golf.

Maj. Gen. Howard M. Synder, the President's personal physician, reported the detailed physical examination indicated the 63-year-old Chief Executive is "maintaining an excellent state of health."

Mr. Eisenhower, meanwhile, picked one of his former NATO aides, Col. Andrew J. Goodpaster, to fill the key post of White House staff secretary, vacant since the recent death of Brig. Gen. Paul T. Carroll.

The summer White House also announced the nation's railroads have agreed to slash freight rates on hay shipments into drought areas by 50 per cent. The president requested the action to help out ranchers and farmers in distressed areas.

Mr. Eisenhower passed up a chance to watch the opening game of the World Series on television in favor of 18 holes of golf at Cherry Hills Country Club, where he has played almost every day during his work-and-play Colorado vacation.

The President paused after the first nine holes, however, to look in on the final innings of the game. Snyder has ordered frequent rounds of golf as the best prescription for keeping the president physically fit and helping him relax from the gruelling grind of the White House.

He said all laboratory findings on the President's physical check-up "were within the normal range," but did not elaborate. Mr. Eisenhower, who will be 64 Oct. 14, underwent the annual examination Sept. 6, during an overnight stay at Fitzsimons Hospital near Denver.

Eisenhower also:
1. Sent a message of "deepest sympathy" to the widow of Sen. Pat McCarran, Nevada Democrat, who died in Reno last night. The President said McCarran "contributed the most fruitful years of his life to his state and nation, a fact we devoutly trust will help you bear your burden of grief."

2. Issued an executive order giving the House Government Operations Committee access to income tax returns for the year 1953. The committee already had access to returns for earlier years in its investigative work.

3. Shelved plans for another Rocky Mountain trout fishing trip this weekend at Fraser, Colo.

Easter Time?

This is an Easter lily that doesn't believe in calendars. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smith of 4227 No. 60th had the lily in their home as a potted plant last Easter. They set the lily out in their garden this summer and the plant bloomed again this fall—although Easter, like Christmas, is a long ways away. (Star Photo)

5 MILLION HIKE-

State Ups Production Of Butter

Nebraska produced fully five million more pounds of butter last year than it did the year before, government statisticians noted Wednesday in a preliminary report on dairy products manufactured in the state.

Production was up on most major items, according to the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

Butter manufactured last year totaled 76,988,000 pounds, compared with 71,269,000 in 1952.

American cheese production rocketed from 494,000 pounds in 1952 to 1,839,000 pounds last year.

Cottage cheese curd went up from 3,800,000 pounds to four million but creamed cottage cheese dropped slightly, from 5,300,000 pounds to 5,200,000 pounds.

Ice cream was up from 5,700,000 gallons in 1952 to 5,900,000 in 1953. Ice milk production totaled 1,500,000 gallons last year as against 1,400,000 gallons the year before.

WATERSHED COMMITTEE IS PLANNED

Gov. Robert Crosby said Wednesday he will appoint an 11-member advisory committee to assist him in passing on requests to the U.S. Department of Agriculture for aid in watershed projects.

Names of the individuals will be announced as soon as they have accepted.

The act signed by the President on Aug. 4 provides that watershed projects may be submitted to the secretary of agriculture if not disapproved by the responsible state agency, if one exists, or by the governor, if there is no agency.

No Agency Now

The Nebraska attorney general's office has ruled there is no appropriate state agency in this state to pass on such projects.

Gov. Crosby said he is appointing a committee large enough to be representative of all sections of the state.

Its purpose, he continued, is to advise him on watershed applications; and to recommend to the next Legislature what it should do, if anything, to set up an agency or confer authority on an existing agency, to process future applications.

Four Applications

Four applications now are in the governor's hands. The first came in last week from Plattsmouth.

The others are for the Antelope Creek watershed at Gordon; the nine-mile watershed in Scotts Bluff, Sioux and Morrill Counties; and the Wild Horse watershed in Morrill County.

The governor said Dan Jones chief of the State Irrigation Bureau, also will advise him with respect to the applications.

Crosby called the new federal act "a demonstration of the active and aggressive interest of the administration in agriculture and conservation of our huge agricultural resources."

Omahan Urged For Treasury Job

WASHINGTON (U)—Laurens Williams, Omaha attorney, was said in Republican patronage circles to be a likely choice as a special treasury assistant.

He would serve with the joint Congressional committee on internal revenue taxation.

Williams, a former president of the Nebraska Bar Assn., was said to be awaiting clearance from Nebraska's senators.

Help Sought In Church Vandalism Probe

'Unhealthy Situation' In Oakland

Lincoln Star Special
TEKAMAH, Neb. — The Burt County Board of Supervisors has "authorized and directed" Walter Dean to ask the help of the State Safety Patrol to investigate the vandalism of two Oakland churches.

The unanimous resolution of the board followed a meeting here with representatives of the First Lutheran Church of Oakland and Salem Covenant Church southwest of Oakland.

Church representatives told the board they are dissatisfied with the lack of progress being made in apprehending persons who wrecked the two churches early in August.

Pews were upset, an American flag was torn down, Bibles were burned, a pulpit was knocked over and other furniture was damaged in the two churches.

Unsubstantiated rumors about who the vandals are have created "an unhealthy situation" in Oakland, one of the church spokesmen said.

Sheriff Dean said the spread of names of some suspects has hampered his work.

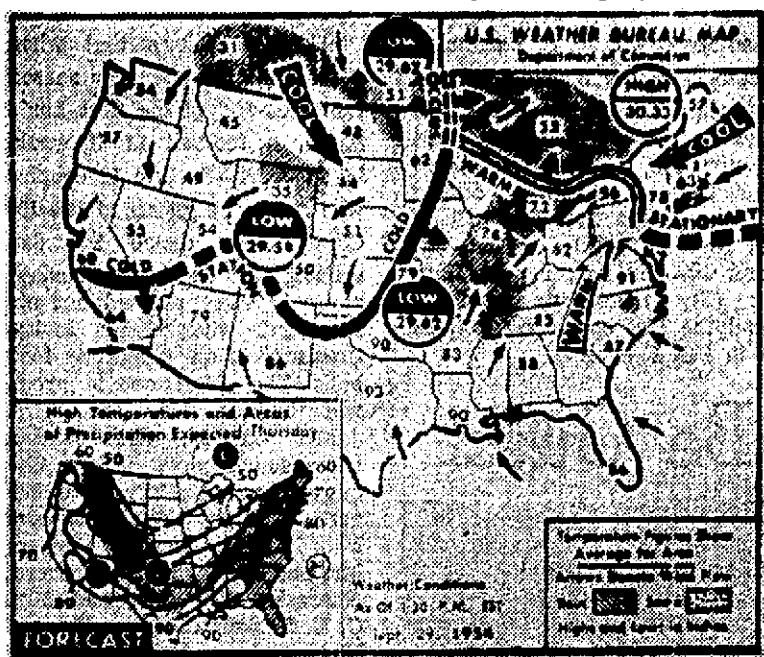

County Attorney Fred Jack, who suggested the Safety Patrol be called in, said he is as anxious to procure innocent suspects as to prosecute whoever is guilty.

The census will get underway on Nov. 1.

Letters From Tekamah Soldier Arrive After Missing Message

Lincoln Star Special

TEKAMAH, Neb.—Less than 24 hours after word arrived that Cpl. Richard L. Hanneman was missing, relatives here received letters from him, postmarked Sept. 22 and 23.

Cpl. Hanneman is one of two Nebraskans listed as missing aboard the capsized ocean ferry Toyo Maru in Japan. The other is Pfc. Vernon L. Sullwold of Humboldt.

Cpl. Hanneman, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hanneman of Tekamah, said in his latest communication to his parents and his wife, Alma, that he was being transferred farther south in Japan and expected to be released from service in the not too distant future. It is presumed he was making this trip at the time of the capsizing.

After attending Tekamah schools, Cpl. Hanneman entered the Armed Forces on Feb. 2, 1952.

He landed in Japan July 10, 1953. His wife is residing with his parents in Tekamah. He also has three brothers and six sisters.

Both of the Nebraska soldiers were members of the 99th Field Artillery Battalion.

Pfc. Sullwold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sullwold, who reside near Humboldt, was an outstanding athlete when he attended Bratton Union Consolidated School near Humboldt.

Records at the school show Pfc. Sullwold, who was graduated in 1951, lettered in football and basketball three years and one year in track. He was a member of the cast of two class plays. Sports editor of the annual his senior year, he served as assistant editor of the school paper when he was a junior.

TOWN TALK this morning involves news of guests—of some newcomers—a few words concerning Leo Kopp, Lincoln Symphony Orchestra conductor—and this and that—

First we heard that Mrs. Hugh B. Cox of Alexandria, Va., is in town—Mrs. Cox arrived on Monday—in time to be on hand for the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. George Ayres—and will leave again on Friday to return to her home—Mrs. Cox, as Alpha Phi alumnae will remember, is the former Ethelyn Ayres—and Mr. Cox also is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

There are those who may be interested in the fact that Mrs. Cox recently headed a fund-raising dinner for Alexandria Democrats.

AND last evening, so someone told us, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Soukup arrived from Alhambra, Calif., to spend a few weeks in Lincoln as the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Soukup, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Soukup came to Lincoln from Imperial where they had been spending a few days as the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndle Stout.

HEARD, too, that Mr. and Mrs. Louis DuTeau and their young son, "Little Al" will be coming from San Francisco on Oct. 9—to stay. Mr. DuTeau, we hear, has completed his Air Corps service, and is once more a civilian. Mrs. DuTeau, as everyone probably remembers, is the former Dorothy Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perry.

WE think the news concerning

Leo Kopp will be of particular interest to the devotees of the Lincoln Symphony—Mr. Kopp has been engaged by the Ford Motor Co., to do five shows for regional meetings during October. The first two will be in New York City on Oct. 5th and 6th—the next are in Kansas City on Oct. 11th and 12th—and the last one is on Oct. 22—in San Francisco.

IT naturally follows that when a dancing club opens its season the week-end of the first home game, a football motif would be in order—So, the 12 couples who are to be guests at the 100 Club dinner dance Saturday evening at Hotel Cornhusker, probably were pleased but not surprised when their invitations arrived on miniature footballs—The guest couple group will include Mr. and Mrs. James Carrier, Mrs. Marian Nickerson, Andrew Haber, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Clive Hilgert, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. William Hewitt, Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Mendell Archer, Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parker, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson, Sibley, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Batten, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pace, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Stover, and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Ludwick.

The party committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tyler, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Durrie, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linch, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralston Graham.

Mrs. Earl Ludlum, president of the MERLE BEATTIE PTA, has announced a series of get-acquainted coffees for mothers of school pupils to begin Thursday morning at the school, with Mrs. John Muehlbeier, membership chairman, in charge of arrangements.

The schedule is as follows: Sept. 30, 9:30 o'clock, sixth grade; 1:30 o'clock, fifth grade; Oct. 1, 9:30 o'clock, fourth grade; 1:30 o'clock, third grade afternoon session; Oct. 4, 9:30 o'clock, third grade morning session; 1:30 o'clock, afternoon second grade; Oct. 5, 9:30 o'clock, morning second grade; 1:30, afternoon first grade; Oct. 6, 9:30 o'clock morning first grade; 1:30 o'clock afternoon kindergarten; Oct. 7, 9:30 o'clock, morning kindergarten.

The members of LAKEVIEW PTA met Friday evening for its first meeting of the fall season. The program was given by Sgt. William Meyers who showed slides on family life in Korea.

Mrs. Art Kulla, president, conducted the meeting and introduced the members of the board including the following recently appointed chairmen: Mrs. Joseph Meisner, membership and magazines; Mrs. Frank Stone, membership co-chairman; Mrs. M. A. Durbin, hospitality; and Mrs. L. G. Sieckman, publicity. Reassignments were served by the PTA officers.

Mrs. Elton Lux presided at the meeting of BETHANY PTA Tuesday afternoon when reading awards were made by Mrs. Elmer DeJarnette, Bethany librarian, and garden awards were presented by Mrs. Robert Fossland. Mrs. Ruth Waples, character education chairman, opened the meeting and a talk on the activities of the PTA Mothersingers was given by Mrs. Edwin Gable.

Following the meeting, a group of mothers presided in the classrooms so the faculty could attend the tea for which Elmer Yates was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jim Williams, Mrs. Everett Peterson and Mrs. Glenn Nahley.

Bethany's annual series of membership coffees for the mothers will be held at 9:15 o'clock in the mornings on the following dates: Oct. 8, kindergarten; Oct. 10, first grades; Oct. 15, second and third grades; and Oct. 17, fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Col. Seward was overseas.

Although September has almost seen its last day, and Lincoln is waiting for its first home football game, newcomers to Lincoln are still trying to get settled in their new homes. The end of the month lag means nothing to our new residents, so we will try to introduce and welcome several more families.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Arthaud, who hail from Front Royal, Va., now are setting up housekeeping at 935 So. 50th St. Mr. Arthaud is working on a research about cattle here at the University of Nebraska. Incidentally, Mr. Arthaud received his Doctor's degree at the University of Missouri. Life is not all leisure for Mrs. Arthaud. She is the mother of Rickey, who is five years old and who is a first year man at Hawthorne; Susan, who is three years old, and Mary Beth, who has just celebrated her first birthday.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wayne J. Seward are residing at 1145 Peach Street. Lt. Col. Seward who spent one year in Japan is now at the Lincoln Air Force Base. Mrs. Seward and Kathleen, who is three and a half, and Patrick who is seven are living in Stockton, Calif., while Col. Seward was overseas.

M. Sgt. and Mrs. Val E. Smith moved to Lincoln about two weeks ago. Sgt. Smith was transferred to the Lincoln Air Force Base after a seven months tour of duty in Japan. Mrs. Smith

Captain and Mrs. Murr Kirby and their two year old son, Jimmy Dean, have moved to Lincoln because of the Air Force Base. Although their hometown is Tampa, Fla., the Kirby family has just arrived from Japan where Capt. Kirby spent a year and where Mrs. Kirby and Jimmy Dean were residents for nine months. Lincoln may not have anything similar to Florida or Japan, but we hope they will be happy at their 4141 Dunn St. home.

Capt. and Mrs. Paul Petyo Jr. now are residing at 4042 Dunn Street. Captain Petyo has been transferred to this base from Japan where he was stationed for 11 months with the 98th Bomber Division. During his absence Mrs. Petyo stayed in Gary, Ind., with the captain's parents. The two younger members of the Petyo family are Mike, who is 6 years and attends Blessed Sacrament School, and Andrew, who soon will be 5, but who just missed the age limit for school enrollment.

M. Sgt. and Mrs. Val E. Smith moved to Lincoln about two weeks ago. Sgt. Smith was transferred to the Lincoln Air Force Base after a seven months tour of duty in Japan. Mrs. Smith and her two sons, Karlton, who is four and a half, and 2-year-old Mitchell, stayed in Springfield, Ill., with Mrs. Smith's parents while Sgt. Smith was in the land of the Rising Sun. Mrs. Smith is settling her family at 1838 No. Cotner.

First Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Vaughn have just recently moved to Lincoln after a year in Japan for Lt. Vaughn who is now stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base. Mrs. Vaughn and her two year old daughter, La Jan stayed in Oklahoma City, Okla., while the lieutenant was away, but now the Vaughns are all together at 3445 S Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Don K. Leslie have come to Lincoln from Mead where Mr. Leslie was transferred from the ordnance plant at Mead to the ordnance plant at the Air Base in Lincoln. Life at 5615 Morrill is not entirely quiet for the Leslies have two children, Dennis Keith, who is five and a half, and Terrence Lynn, who is three. The members of this family are not complete strangers in Lincoln. Mrs. Leslie has for her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Wolf and a cousin, Mrs. A. Stewart, residing here.

New Treason Charge Issued Against Ex-Sergeant Provoo

Court Upsets 1st Conviction

BALTIMORE (AP)—A new warrant charging John David Provoo, former U. S. Army staff sergeant with treason while a prisoner of the Japanese during World War II, was issued here late Wednesday.

Provoo, now 36, was convicted of treason and sentenced to life in prison in New York in one of the strangest cases to come out of World War II. But the U. S. Court of Appeals upset the conviction and sentence on the ground that he should have been tried in Maryland where he was an Army prisoner at the time of his arrest.

U. S. Atty. George Cochran Doub of Maryland, who will handle the second trial, said the government's decision to retry Provoo in the Maryland district means there will be no Supreme Court appeal of the New York Appeals Court decision throwing out the first conviction.

Provoo was convicted Feb. 11, 1953, of broadcasting wartime propaganda for the Japanese, of abusing fellow American soldiers in wartime Pacific hell camps, and of causing the death of Army Capt. Burton C. Thomson of Swea City, Iowa, by informing him to their Japanese captors.

Cost $1 Million
In unanimously ruling that the case never should have been tried in New York, the U. S. Court of Appeals also held that the government wrongfully instituted before the jury that Provoo was homosexual.

Doub said he will seek an indictment before the federal grand jury convening here Oct. 18. If he gets it he hopes to bring Provoo to trial within three months of that time.

With witnesses brought from all over the world, it cost the government one million dollars to convict the square-jawed former San Francisco bank clerk.

Doub indicated Wednesday night that a second trial would be equally costly, that the 34 government witnesses—20 of them brought from Japan at great expense—would be recalled.

Provoo was liable for the death penalty on conviction of treason but Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan in New York District Court spared his life and gave him the maximum prison sentence instead.

Nature Become's Seward's Lamplighter At Ceremony

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

SEWARD, Neb.—Mother Nature took over as official lamplighter in Seward Wednesday night in a flick of a switch which was claimed to make this city the best lighted community west of the Mississippi.

The new $43,000 Seward street lights, huge fluorescent affairs, were dedicated with fireworks, music, a parade, beauty contest and dancing. Miss Delores Bjerrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bjerrum of Garland, was chosen beauty queen from a field of 11 contestants. Kay Yerk of Seward, Artha Lee Kapke of Seward and Virginia Miesner of Seward, placed second, third and fourth respectively.

The celebration, titled "White Way Festival," was launched with a burst of fireworks over previously darkened streets. A fire siren which followed signaled Dean Marshall, city electrician, to pull a small switch and turn on the 74 seven-foot-long lights. The lights are mounted on poles 30 feet above the street and the light controls will be activated by a photo-electric cell which turns lights on when natural light grows dim, and turns them off with the arrival of daylight.

A parade of about 50 entries, including several bands and floats and cars carrying the beauty candidates, led to the city bandshell where the beauty contest and a style revue were held. Wilbur Wood, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the program in the bandshell. Herman Weiler, acting mayor, introduced members of the City Council and others associated with the installation of the lights.

Weiler said the lights were purchased without a bond issue, and were made necessary by the deterioration of the former street light system. Among the advantages of the new lights he cited was a discouragement to thievery and increased traffic safety.

The new lights were placed at intervals of six to each block around the city square, and four to a block on adjacent blocks.

The first place winner in the beauty contest won a cash award and a free trip to Kansas City where she will take part in national beauty competition.

McCarran Successor Pondered

Ruling Is Asked By Nevada's Governor

CARSON CITY, Nev. (INS)—Gov. Charles Russell of Nevada Wednesday asked State Attorney General William Mathews to rule whether a successor to U. S. Sen. Pat McCarran (D) can be appointed for the remainder of McCarran's term ending in 1956.

McCarran, 78-year-old white-haired veteran of the Senate, and dominant for years in Nevada politics, died suddenly Tuesday night while addressing a Democratic political rally in Hawthorne. He had suffered from a heart ailment for several years.

A source close to the governor's office said it was probable that a successor to McCarran could be named only for the period remaining between now and the November 2 election.

Gov. Russell was in Las Vegas. His secretary, Arthur N. Suverkrupp, said no official comment would be possible until a detailed ruling was received from the attorney general.

Important Bearing
Some Republican leaders contended that a successor could be appointed for the remainder of McCarran's term. With the Senate closely divided and Gov. Russell, a Republican, certain to appoint a Republican successor to the late Democratic senator, the length of the appointment could have an important bearing on control of the Senate at the next session of Congress.

If the attorney general rules that a successor must be chosen at the November election the Democratic and Republican state central committees will name the candidates. Their names must be printed on a special ballot as most of the regular ballots for the election in the various counties already have been printed.

Aides of the governor said he might not make an appointment if it could run only until November.

RHODES' BLAST BEATS TRIBE

Dusty Pays Tribute To Winning Lumber

Dusty Rhodes, who watched the first World Series game from the bench, then went to bat as a pinch-hitter in the 10th and won the game with a three-run homer, pays homage to the stick that helped him. (UP Telephoto.)

Rhodes: I Wasn't Trying For Homer

By TED SMITH
NEW YORK (AP)—Dusty Rhodes, mighty New York Giant pinch hitter whose home run in the 10th won the opening game of the World Series, confessed after the game Wednesday it was an accident of sorts.

"I wasn't trying for a home run," he said. "I was just trying for a hit."

But what a hit—a decisive three-run homer!

"It was the best hit I ever got in my life," he said, laughing.

"Were you worried going up there as a pinch hitter?"

"Nope," he said flatly. "The pitcher is the guy who worries. He's got to get me out."

Rhodes' homer was on a curve thrown by Bob Lemon, the Cleveland Indian ace.

Manager Leo Durocher of the victorious Giants, after praising Rhodes and Willie Mays, heaped his affection on his pitchers.

"It was great relief pitching," he said. "I got just what I wanted."

His relievers were Don Liddle and Mays' Amazing Catch Liddle, as a matter of fact, pitched only to one batter. The scene was this.

Sal Maglie, the crafty 37-year-old Giant starter, had weakened. In the eighth he walked Larry Doby to open the inning and then Al Rosen singled. Up came Vic Wertz. The big first baseman of the Indians already had a triple and two singles to his credit, and was destined to get a double in the 10th.

Durocher waved in Liddle and Maglie made the long, slow walk to the Giant clubhouse.

Wertz smashed a drive straight to center that would have been a home run in almost any other major league park.

Willie Mays turned his back to the diamond and ran as hard as he could. At the very wall, 450 feet from the plate, with his back still to the playing field, Mays made a catch that looked impossible.

"Wertz hits the thing a ton, but he gets him out—that's what I wanted Liddle to do," said Durocher.

Durocher said under no circumstances would he have allowed Liddle to pitch to the next

'Longest Out, Shortest Homer Beat Us,' Says Tribe's Lopez

By FRITZ HOWELL
NEW YORK (AP)—"The longest out and the shortest home run of the season beat us, that's all!"

That's how Senor Al Lopez, Cleveland's smiling-in-defeat manager, summed up Wednesday's opening World Series victory by the New York Giants over his American League champions.

He referred to the sensational catch by Giant center fielder Willie Mays of a screaming 450-foot drive off the bat of Vic Wertz, and the climactic 270-foot homer with which pinch hitter Dusty Rhodes ended the game in the 10th inning.

"Routine Out? Homer?"

Of Rhodes' home run, Lopez said:

"I thought it was just a routine out when it left the bat. Dave Pope said he thought he had the ball all the way, but the wind caught it. But it was a home run, and there's no defense against home runs."

Bob Lemon, who pitched all the way, had little to say about the homer.

"That's the way it goes," he said, "but I'll have to admit it's tough to lose on a hit like that one. I thought it was just another out, and all at once the game's over. Dusty hit under a curve ball and knocked it a mile high, but it got into the stands."

"We had a couple of chances to win the game in nine innings," Lopez said.

pick him off first) Vic could have reached third instead of second, but for an unfortunate thing.

"He wears a protective shin guard on his right leg, and as he started for second after the ball got away from the first baseman and catcher, the guard broke loose and stopped him. It's the first time the guard has ever hampered him."

Wertz Leads Hitters
Wertz, who had a 4-for-3 day to lead the hitters with a triple, two singles and a double, was more upset by the shin guard incident than he was elated by his batting.

"I've worn that thing all season," he said, "and I have my first trouble with it in the World Series. As to the hits, you never can tell about them. All you can do is keep on swinging. But that Mays caught the best one I hit all day."

Wertz drove in both Cleveland runs with a resounding triple off the right field wall in the first inning.

In the rough third inning, when the Giants combed Lemon for three hits and two runs, Lopez walked out to talk with his pitcher and then had a chat with Umpire Al Barlick behind the plate.

Asked if he had protested something to the umpire, or had given any instructions to Lemon, Lopez said:

"Neither one. I just asked Lemon how he was feeling. He said he was okay. On the way back to the bench, I stopped and asked Barlick how he was feeling. He said he was 'swell.'"

Underdogs Cop 5-2; Mays Defense Star

BY BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS)—Dusty Rhodes, a pinch-hitter out of some improbable sports fiction, smote a home run on the first pitch offered him Wednesday, and the underdog Giants took the first game of the World Series from Cleveland, 5-2, in 10 taut innings.

Hitting for Monte Irvin with Willie Mays and Hank Thompson on base, Rhodes pounced hungrily on the great Bob Lemon's opening heave. The ball arched far up against the perfect early fall sky and barely dropped into the stands.

A fan, one of 52,751 completely deranged souls assembled in the Polo Grounds, deflected the ball back on the field. But the axe had fallen; the game was over. Lemon, a picture of noble disgust, threw his glove into the air as the Giant runners leaped and bounded around the bases like happy children and fell into the bruising embrace of their teammates assembled at the plate.

Heartbreaker

For Lemon it was a heartbreaker; for the Giants it was the "big one"—the game that got them off to a start few expected to witness, the game that knocked Cleveland off its perch as favorite.

A superb job of relief pitching by Marv Grissom, an elderly gentleman from the Giants bullpen, had as much to do with the victory as anything else.

So did an eighth inning catch by Willie Mays which kept Giants hopes breathing and which boldly robbed Vic Wertz of what would have been a perfect day at bat—five for five.

The teams duelled tensely, locked in a 2-2 tie, from the third inning until the moment, nearly three hours later, when Rhodes cracked open the contest for keeps.

'Old Master'

Lemon was one of the masters of old from the fourth until disaster befell him. He gave up only one hit, a single by Don Mueller from the fourth until he ran into Rhodes in the tenth.

On the other side of the ledger, the Indians were a perpetual threat through the latter stages of the game. Grissom, supported brilliantly, left seven Indians dead on the bases in the last three innings.

The tensest of these was the Indian eighth when the American League champions made a tremendous effort to break out of the 2-2 tie.

Sal Maglie, the Giants starter, walked Larry Doby to open the eighth. Al Rosen beat a hard ball into the infield and was safe when all that Al Dark could do was flag it down with his meat hand.

Wertz Up

Up stepped Wertz, a man who plays first base with all the grace of a bulldozer but who can lay wood to leather in a most menacing manner. In his three previous trips he had tripled and twice singled, and he showed absolutely no sign of cooling off at this point.

Leo Durocher, the Giants' official brain, took one look at him and dismissed Maglie for the afternoon. He brought in Don Liddle, a wrongside thrower. Wertz tore the cover off the ball with a mighty swipe, and it appeared to be all over but the tears.

The ball shot like a guided missile toward deep center field. Willie Mays turned his back and ran his heart out, never looking back. For an unforgettable split second there appeared to be no power on earth capable of preventing Mays from bashing his skull against the cement and wire fence.

Never Forgotten

Then several things happened that will never be forgotten by the witnesses.

The ball streaked downward over Willie's right shoulder. Willie shot his hands out even faster than the ball was moving, caught it, plunged hatless to the ground at the foot of the wall, bounced up and threw it all the way into second on the fly.

At a late hour Wednesday night there was still some doubt expressed as to whether the catch was possible.

Doby moved to third after the catch. Grissom was brought in to pitch to Majeski, batting for Philley. Majeski was called back then and Lopez sent up Dale Mitchell. Mitchell walked filling the bases.

Al Lopez, emitting smoke from his ears as a result of this duel of managerial wits, chose Dave Pope to hit for George Strickland at this point. Grissom mowed him down with a beautiful sinker, and Big Jim Hegan skied out to Monte Irvin for the third out of a breathtaking inning.

Irvin gave Grissom the sweats in the ninth with a two base error off a ball which he should have permitted Dark to catch. Grissom purposely passed Doby after that, then got Al Rosen to fly out to left.

Wertz led off the Cleveland tenth with a massive double between Irvin and Mays. Lopez sent Rudy Regalado in to run for the semi-immobile Wertz.

Mitchell dumped a nice sacrifice bunt into the infield, moving Rudy to third. Durocher ordered Pope passed, dreaming wistfully of a double play in the offing. Lopez countered by lifting Hegan and inserting Bill Glynn.

Grissom struck him out manfully, and this final Indian rebellion subsided when Lemon—swinging as if he were not a pitcher—blazed a liner right at Whitey Lockman.

Then the Giants' tenth. The chapter that set a whole town dancing began drably enough. Mueller struck out. It wasn't drab for a moment after that. Mays, wildly exhorted to win the game with a home run, drew a walk and stole second base on Lemon's first pitch to Hank Thompson. Lemon put Thompson on base and turned his attention to Rhodes, standing at the plate loosening up with two bats.

The man tossed one of the bat's away, and for a pleasantly breathless little period they stared at each other—like strange warriors sizing up the opponent. Then Lemon threw.

'Say Hey' Willie Does It Again

Bob Oberlin May Miss Iowa State Game

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star
Coach Bill glassford and his Cornhuskers—in the midst of preparing for a storm in the shape of a Cyclone—may be without the services of Center Bob Oberlin Saturday.

This was revealed by Glassford Wednesday afternoon. Oberlin injured a leg against Minnesota and it has been a bit slow healing. In case the West Allis, Wis., veteran is not able to play against Iowa State at Memorial Stadium Saturday, his spot will be filled by Sophomore pivot man Bob Bergum of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Backing up Bergum would be LaVerne Torczon and Doran Post, the former a soph and the latter a junior.

Nursing head bumps Wednesday were Enos Bill Hewitt and LeRoy Butcher, but both are okay and will be ready Saturday. Only one player—Quarterback Rex Fischer—will sit out the Cyclone battle if Oberlin rounds into shape by game time.

Rough Work Over
Wednesday concluded the rough work as Glassford sent his crew through an offensive scrimmage. Thursday the Huskers will run dummy defensive drills and just loosen up Friday.

With tickets still available for the game, the indications are that a crowd of some 32 to 33,000 will be on hand for the Huskers' home debut. While it is still too early to put the weatherman on the

Today's Starters
CHICAGO (AP)—Al Andrews, an 8-5 underdog, landed a sledgehammer right at the outset of the third round to knock out seasoned Gil Turner in a surprising upset at the Chicago Stadium Monday night.

Each fighter weighed 154½ for their scheduled 10-round return match. Turner had scored a close victory over Andrews at the Stadium Aug. 18.

Andrews rushed across the ring at the start of the third round and swung an overhand right to the jaw which felled the Philadelphia Negro like he was stoned.

The time was 12 seconds of the third, but it was several minutes before Turner, laying flat on his back, could be revived.

The finishing blow in the nationally televised fight was the same type Andrews threw after the bell opened the first round, but that was a grazing blow.

At the start of the third, Turner started a left lead and Andrews' blow whistled over it to catch Gil flush on the jaw.

Midland Declared Winner On Forfeit
CRETE, Neb. (AP)—Doane College's 21-6 win last Friday over Midland College has been thrown out by the Nebraska College Conference and Midland declared the winner, 2-0 on a forfeit.

The game was forfeited because Doane discovered a scholastically ineligible player was used in the second half. The player was guard Bob Gillan.

Gillan was a transfer student from Concordia and Doan, checking the list of the school's eligible players on Monday, discovered that Gillan did not have a satisfactory scholastic record at Concordia last spring.

Rules of the NCC are that a list of eligible players must be provided to conference officials by Oct. 1.

New Prep Class Planned

Cage Group Proposes AA Division

The 1955 state high school basketball tournament may be played in five classes instead of the present four if the Nebraska School Activities Association representative assembly approves a recommendation made Wednesday by the NSAA basketball committee.

The committee, which included representatives from high schools in each of the present four classes—A, B, C and D—as well as new NSAA activities director C. C. Thompson and returning director O. L. Webb, has suggested a complete revamping of the classification system.

The proposals, which will be presented at the December meeting of the assembly, would establish a new classification system on the following basis:

1. The top classification (AA) would include the 16 schools having the largest male enrollment. These schools would compete in four district basketball tournaments of four teams, with only the winners going to the state tournament.

2. Class A would consist of the next 16 schools based on male enrollment. The AA tournament setup would prevail in the new Class A, which would include several schools now in Class B.

3. Class B would include the next 64 schools. There would be eight Class B district tournaments with only the winners coming to the state meet. This system is now in use in Class B.

C, D Large
4. Class C would include the 128 schools which rank immediately after the new Class B schools in male enrollment. There would be 16 districts of eight teams, with the winners to be paired in playoffs to determine the state tournament entrants. This is the tournament system used in Class C now.

5. Class D would consist of schools below Class C. There would be 32 district tournaments, as there are now. Winners would participate in four-team playoffs, as they do now, to determine the teams which would go to the state carnival.

The present classification system is based strictly on male enrollment and allows any number of schools in each of the four present classes.

Schools with over 190 boys are Class A; those with less than 190 but more than 80 are in Class B; those with 80 or less but more than 35 are in C; and Class D is composed of schools with 35 or less boys.

New Groups
Under the new system the two top classes would consist of the following schools (according to the NSAA enrollment guide for 1953-54):

CLASS AA — Omaha South, Omaha Tech, Lincoln High, Omaha North, Omaha Central, Omaha Benson, Grand Island, Hastings, Creighton Prep, Boys Town, Northeast, Scottsbluff, North Platte, Fremont, Beatrice and Kearney.

CLASS A — Alliance, Columbus, Fairbury, Falls City, Lexington, McCook, Nebraska City, Norfolk, Omaha Cathedral, Sidney, Atchamouth, Curtis, York, South Sioux City, Gering and Holdrege.

Borderline Cases
Several of the larger B schools could easily slip into the new Class A with slight increases in

Indians Must Catch Us Now Says Al Dark

By AL DARK

NEW YORK (INS)—That first one was the big one to win. Now it's up to the Indians to catch us. Naturally we hope to stay in front and we have felt right along that we could win.

The Indians played great ball and Bob Lemon was, as he always is, a wonderful pitcher. He knows what he's doing all the time and he showed us a lot of stuff.

We got some fine pitching, too, and when Dusty Rhodes came through with that pinch home run we all went nuts on the bench. Some may call it a cheap homer but he's been hitting homers for us in the clutch all year.

And we didn't care whether the ball was hit 250 feet or three miles just so it won the game for us.

That Willie Mays, isn't he something out of this world? Our Coach Fred Fitzsimmons, who has been around a great many years, says he never saw a better catch in his life whether in a World Series or anywhere else.

I think they'll find Johnny Antonelli awful hard to beat Thursday and if he has his usual stuff I think he'll put us two ahead.

Tough Way To Lose Says Bob Lemon

By BOB LEMON

Cleveland Pitching Star
NEW YORK (INS)—It's a tough way to lose a ball game.

I gave Dusty Rhodes a good curve ball. Alvin Dark and Wes Westrum hit 'em harder but Rhodes got it where he wanted it. It was just about the 15th or 16th homer—I'm not sure—gave up all year... What can you do? I pitched about three innings of a spring exhibition game in this park five years ago. Anybody's dangerous in this ball park.

I felt pretty good. I was a little wild at first. You get that way when you're trying to throw hard and you're not a fast ball pitcher. Mine is a sinker.

But I wasn't tired. I could have gone two or three more innings if that... Dark's ball in the ninth was hit harder than Rhodes'. Westrum also gave me a tough time. But then he's a low ball hitter and I'm a low ball pitcher.

enrollment, or with slight decreases in the enrollment of others. On the borderline are Seward, Omaha Westside, Bellevue, Blair and Ogallala.

Final figures for 1954-55 will not be officially released until about Oct. 15.

The committee recommended that this classification system be used in track, with the exception that AA and A be combined in a single class for district and state competition. Since there is no recognized NSAA championship in football that sport was not considered. Swimming, tennis, wrestling and gymnastics are not divided by classes in championship play.

Baseball Lost Out
No recommendation was made concerning baseball, which is played in four classes at present, or for golf, which is divided into A and B divisions for state grass greens championship play.

Proponents of the new plan include as part of the proposal the stipulation that no school would be allowed to participate out of its class. At present a team may compete in a class higher than the one to which it belongs.

Members of the committee, in addition to Webb and Thompson, are F. Y. Knappe, Omaha Central; E. G. Lightbody, Nebraska City; Elmer Lindahl, Neligh; M. L. Christensen, Geneva; Ralph Beechner, Lincoln; William T. Speich, Primrose; H. F. Schroeder, Holdrege; C. R. Brown, North Bend; Kenneth Shibata, Silver Creek; Roy Mayer, North Platte; Bill Stephenson, Cambridge; J. F. Anderson, Harrisburg; and Carl McManis, Gering.

Peru Seeks Win No. 25

Lincoln Star Special

PERU — The nation's winningest football team, Coach Al Wheeler's Peru State College Bobcats, will be at home this week, the first time thus far in the '54 season.

The game with Chadron State in the famous Oak Bowl is expected to attract more than the usual attention come Saturday night because of the Bobcats, who Al Wheeler already have won more football games than any other college team in the country, will be going after number 25.

The Cats came through their crucial contest with Wayne State last week in good physical condition and should be in top form for the home folks' first look.

Cellar Spot
Wheeler's charges, winners over tough Oklahoma Panhandle, Concordia and Wayne, were supposed to have it easy inasmuch as all pre-season prognosticators had awarded Chadron the loop cellar position but the Eagles showed what they thought of the verdict by surprising Nebraska Wesleyan in the conference opener for both schools, played last Saturday.

Several high school football squads in the Peru State area are expected to be guests of the college for the game and Southeast Nebraska editors will also sit in as guests.

The series record shows that Saturday night's go will be the twenty-fifth meeting for the two teams.

Al Wheeler

Wayne Quarterback To Be Out 4 Weeks

WAYNE—Wayne State Teachers College Quarterback Don Kellogg will be lost to the football squad for a minimum of four weeks, it was announced Wednesday.

Kellogg suffered a shoulder injury in last Saturday's game with Peru, and x-rays showed that the injury was a separation.

Ken Rapp, senior from Aurelia, Iowa, who finished Saturday's tilt at quarterback, has been working at that position the last two days and will most likely start in that position against Midland this Saturday.

Gill O'Doherty, who was injured on the same play as Kellogg, will be held out of scrimmage this week, according to Coach Barney Lewellyn. "However, Gill will probably see action against Midland," Lewellyn said.

The rest of the squad came through the fray with nothing more than bruises.

Winter, Starmmer Midland Leaders

FREMONT — Midland College's sputtering football offense, which has produced only 12 points in two games, has two bright spots, statistics released Wednesday reveal.

Don Winter and Don Starmmer have been the Midland bright spots. Winter, sophomore halfback of Omaha, has picked up 63 yards in two games, for an average of 4.8 yards per carry. Starmmer, Fremont freshman halfback, has netted 40 yards in 10 carries in two games.

On the ground Midland has gained only 136 yards in two games, while opponents have picked up 526. The Warriors have gained 87 yards through the air to 35 for their opponents. Midland has gone for 14 first downs while opponents have marched to 31.

Larry Burkink, Scribner sophomore, taking his first turn at punting this season, has compiled a 32-yard punting average in 16 boots. Coach Woody Greeno's squad entertains Wayne at Midland in a 7:30 p.m. ball game Saturday.

HIS PATRONAGE ORGANIZATION BIGGEST—

McCarran Was A Powerful Figure In U.S. Senate

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The death of 78-year-old Sen. Pat McCarran of Nevada stills one of the most powerful and aggressive voices in the United States Senate.

McCarran represented the smallest state, in population, in the union. He needed only 35,829 votes to win re-election in 1950, far fewer than most successful House candidates required.

But his long years of seniority as a Democrat in the Senate and his iron determination in pushing causes in which he believed eventually led him to a pinnacle of power in Washington.

Strong Influence

He built up what was considered the biggest patronage organization in the Senate through his key committee posts.

He pushed through to enactment highly controversial legislation despite the veto of former President Truman.

He was reputed to have strong influence in important government departments, particularly the Justice Department, and to a lesser extent the State Department.

At times he even conducted his own negotiations with officials of foreign governments on projects in which he was interested.

Headed Judiciary

Much of McCarran's power stemmed from his long chairmanship of the Judiciary Committee, which handles more than half of all the legislation coming before the Senate. A big share of this consists of private relief bills, but these often are of more concern to individual senators than major measures.

The committee also passes on presidential appointments of key officials in the Justice Department, of all federal judges, including Supreme Court justices, and of U.S. attorneys and marshals.

McCarran enlarged the scope of the committee in 1951 by setting up an Internal Security subcommittee, becoming its first chairman and launching numerous widely publicized investigations of subversion. To handle all this work, the Judiciary Committee has one of the biggest staffs of any Senate group.

Senior Demo

McCarran lost the chairmanship in 1953 after the Republicans won control of Congress. But he remained the senior Democrat on the committee and a highly influential member, since he had many close friends and supporters among the Republicans. The committee staff he had assembled was left largely untouched.

In the 1953 and 1954 sessions Chairman Langer (R-ND) frequently permitted McCarran to speak for the committee on the Senate floor.

McCarran was a close friend of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Key Member

Prior to 1953 McCarran also was chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee which handled all funds for the State, Commerce and Justice departments. This made him the key member of the Senate as far as the three agencies were concerned. In addition he headed a special appropriations "watch-dog" committee which investigated foreign aid spending.

McCarran testified before a Senate committee this year about direct negotiations which he handled with Spanish government officials concerning air bases the United States was planning to build in Spain. He told of transatlantic telephone conversations with officials in Madrid.

He long had been an ardent advocate of aid to Spain, even when that country was not highly regarded by the American government because of its sympathy with Hitler in World War II.

Once McCarran invited the Spanish ambassador to attend a closed door hearing at which he quizzed high government officials about aid to Spain.

He also was a strong supporter of Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Chinese Nationalists, and often was in touch with representatives of that regime.

McCarran was first elected to the Senate in 1932, the year Franklin Delano Roosevelt won his first term as President. But as the years went on the Nevadaan diverged more and more from the Democratic administrations; in recent years he voted with the Republicans often on key issues.

GOP votes helped him to put over two major pieces of legislation associated with his name—the 1950 Internal Security Act and the 1952 immigration law. Both were passed over Truman vetoes.

The Internal Security Act requires registration of Communist and Communist front organizations. The immigration law tightens up requirements for persons seeking to come to the United States.

Some senators attacked the bill as dangerous to American freedoms. They also charged the legislation was discriminatory.

McCarran had the courage of his convictions. He was convinced senators were underpaid, and so he introduced a bill in 1953 to raise congressional salaries by $10,000 a year and induced the Judiciary Committee to approve it. He was highly impatient with Senate leaders because they refused to call it up for passage.

Pistol, Fists In Early Censure Cases

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators have been saying unkind words to, and about, other senators ever since the first Congress.

Yet in all these years only three times has the Senate found itself in a situation roughly comparable to the one it faces now.

In a little over a month the Senate will be back in business, trying to decide whether it should censure Sen. McCarthy. And so let's look at the earlier cases built around (1) a pistol, (2) a fist and (3) a lobbyist on loan.

First, the pistol.
In 1850, Sen. Henry S. Foote of Mississippi was making a caustic speech when Sen. Thomas Hart Benton of Missouri advanced toward him. Foote was a little fellow, and he later said he thought he was about to be attacked.

Drew Pistol
So he did the logical thing by 1850 standards. He drew a pistol. Naturally this created considerable confusion. Other senators were on their feet, shouting. A few of the courageous moved between the foes. And above the uproar Benton was heard to bellow:

"I have no pistol! Let him fire! Stand out of the way and let the assassin fire!"

Since this literally had happened under their noses, the senators had to take official notice. The problem was referred to a select committee, as McCarthy's case was 104 years later.

Against Pistols
But the 1850 committee didn't recommend censure for either man, although it did take a stand with which few could quibble. It came out strongly against carrying pistols on the Senate floor.

Next, the fist.

This incident came in 1902 and involved the two South Carolina senators.

Said Sen. John L. McLaurin of a comment by Sen. Benjamin R. Tillman: "I now say that that statement is a willful, malicious and deliberate lie."

Tillman — "Pitchfork Benn" he was known as in those days — promptly went over and punched McLaurin in the face.

No Penalty
The Senate took a dimmer view of fistfights than it did of gunplay. It voted 54-12 to censure them both.

It was the first vote of censure in 113 years of Senate history. Then, as now, it carried with it no penalty, although on the first roll call after censure the names of the South Carolinians were omitted.

The case of the lobbyist is the most recent.

In 1929, a tariff bill was up for consideration, and Sen. Hiram Bingham (R-Conn.) decided he needed some expert help. So he wrote the Connecticut Manufacturers' Assn. to ask if it had a likely man he could borrow.

The association was happy to help. The expert reported, and not only advised Bingham but sat in on some executive meetings of a committee.

When the censure vote came, Bingham maintained his motives were good and that he meant no harm by bringing in a man who normally would be barred from such meetings. But the Senate made him the third censured senator by a 54-22 vote.

Two senators who were there that day are still in business at the same old stand, Sens. George (D-Ga.) and Hayden (D-Ariz.). They both voted for censure.

KFAB's Lyell Bremser Gives Details Of Personnel Plans For TV Station

WASHINGTON (AP) — Additional details on personnel of a proposed television station which KFAB Broadcasting Company of Omaha, Neb., seeks permission to build went into the record Wednesday before Isadore Honig, Communications Commission examiner.

KFAB is competing for Channel 7 with the Herald Corp. of Omaha.

R. Lyell Bremser, program director for KFAB, continued his testimony on duties of the estimated 74 employees which KFAB says will be needed for the station.

He said it will cost $334,700 for the first year of operation of the TV station. Of this, $171,200 is listed for salaries for employees of the program department.

Harry Burke of Omaha, KFAB general manager, is waiting to testify when Bremser concludes and may be the last witness called by KFAB. It is possible KFAB will conclude its direct case by the end of this week, the third of the hearing.

Eugene S. Thomas, general manager of the Herald Corp., probably will be the first witness called for that applicant when KFAB concludes. Also waiting to testify is Ben H. Cowdery, president of the Herald Corp. and publisher of the Omaha World Herald.

Wednesday, Percy Russell, attorney for the Herald Corp. cross-examined Bremser, about the em-

Powell A Traitor, Jenner Says

...SENATOR WANTS TREASON CHARGE PRESSED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) said Wednesday that he has asked the Justice Department "to press a treason charge" against John W. Powell, former editor of a magazine in Red China and now a lecturer and free lance writer in this country.

At the opening of a Senate Internal Security subcommittee hearing, Jenner called Powell a "renegade American." He said Powell had "adhered to our enemies in wartime and given them substantial aid and comfort."

Jenner, the subcommittee chairman, said he was "shocked beyond words" to learn that Powell had been permitted to hold a news conference in the National Press Club here Tuesday.

Invoked Amendment

Powell was a witness before the subcommittee at a public hearing Monday and invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against possible self incrimination in refusing to answer questions as to whether he was or had been a Communist.

At the news conference Powell denied he was a Communist but said he would not make the statement under oath. He contended that questions about whether he was a Communist—or a Republic can Democrat—invaded his rights.

Jenner told newsmen that he had talked to William P. Rogers, deputy attorney general, earlier Wednesday and told him the subcommittee was sending a transcript of its hearings to the Justice Department.

'Soften Up People'

He added that Rogers assured him that the matter would receive immediate attention.

In his statement at Wednesday's hearing, Jenner said it is "reasonable to assume that John W. Powell is in this country to soften up the American people, as he tried to soften up our fighting men, so we will agree to trade with the Soviet bloc and keep quiet if Red China is admitted to the United Nations."

Jenner observed that the subcommittee received testimony from former American prisoners in Korea that they were forced to read issues of Powell's magazine and "repeat the lies it peddled before they could get any food or medical care."

He also said in his statement: "We sentence a Cpl. Dickenson of Crackers Neck to 10 years in prison and give a dishonorable discharge to Col. Fleming, although these men withstood most of the horrors of imprisonment in Communist prison camps, while we let a renegade American, who indirectly helped to torture them, travel freely about this country to spread the poison of confusion and defeatism."

Jenner referred to Cpl. Edward Dickenson, given 10 years on a conviction of collaborating with the enemy while he was a war prisoner in Korea, and Lt. Col. Harry Fleming, convicted on a similar charge last week. Fleming's sentence of dismissal and forfeiture of pay and allowances is awaiting review by Army authorities.

Severe Weather Area Centered Around Mason City When DC3 Crashed, CAB Told

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—An Air Force weather expert testified at a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing here Wednesday that severe weather area centered around Mason City, Ia., on Aug. 22 when a Braniff Airways DC3 crashed.

Twelve of 23 persons aboard were killed.

Maj. Robert C. Miller, in charge of the severe weather warning bureau at Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma, said thunderstorms and hail had been forecast for the Mason City area the afternoon of the crash.

The airliner went down during a driving thunderstorm 16 miles southwest of Mason City.

Some 50 persons representing the CAB, Civil Aeronautics Administration, airlines, the pilots association and passengers aboard the ill-fated craft are here for the CAB hearing into the crash.

Miller was the first witness Wednesday.

Earlier witnesses were J. D. Switzer and Halford Earle, Braniff flight dispatchers in Dallas, and A. W. Burch, a Kansas City crew scheduler.

Burch testified that he heard Capt. W. A. Pickering, the pilot who was among those killed, remark that "it looked like it was building up to a rough one north of Des Moines."

Donald Pearson of 3320 Starr, injured in the crash, is still hospitalized in Mason City.

Pearson, of the Woodmen Accident Co., was aboard the ill-fated plane on the way to a business meeting in Minneapolis.

Members of his family said he will remain in the hospital for about another month, but that he is getting along fine.

BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS By Arthur 'Bugs' Boer

That also goes for the trailer vote in Florida, California and New Mexico. The old times are almost over.

In most of the doubtful states it was closer than hammer toes. We figure the must of been thinking about that when he declared Maine a major disaster district. He was almost right politically.

He has become a slick politician who knows which side his meat is buttered on. When he was in Washington he was greener than Pullman curtains.

He is still a sportsman who spots you five yards. But it will be uphill.

If Vermont goes as Maine goes, then Vermont goes.

Jenner Will Review Censure Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, disclosed Wednesday he intends to review certain phases of the inquiry which resulted in a recommendation that Sen. McCarthy be censured for some of his official conduct.

Jenner said in an interview that Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), head of the special Senate group which passed judgment on McCarthy, would be called before the Rules Committee to explain, among other things, why he "conducted a one-man hearing" at one point in the probe.

Watkins will also be asked about four changes the special committee proposed be made in the rules for conducting Senate investigations, Jenner said.

Friend Of Joe's After word of this latest move reached Watkins, he told newsmen he would have nothing to say about it for the time being.

Jenner, a good friend of McCarthy, says "many words will be spoken" after the Senate convenes Nov. 8 to decide whether the Wisconsin Republican merits an official and public rebuke.

One of the three senators who filed censure charges against McCarthy, Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), predicted Wednesday the Senate would accept the Watkins committee's recommendations. He said the Senate rarely refuses to support a committee which returns a unanimous report. The special committee was made up of three Republicans and three Democrats.

Fulbright said that it conducted its hearings "in a dignified manner that reflects credit on the Senate," adding: "I think it will help restore the confidence of the people in the Senate as a great legislative body."

Jenner's reference to a "one-man hearing" concerns a closed door hearing at which Watkins questioned Charles L. Watkins, Senate parliamentarian and no relative of the Utah senator, about the validity of a Senate Elections Subcommittee which investigated McCarthy's finances in 1951-52.

One of the grounds advanced by Watkins' group recommended that when Congress convenes again in January four changes be made in the rules governing Senate investigations. The changes, one of which would restrict the practice of holding committee meetings with only one member present, are designed to preserve the bipartisan nature of Senate committees and give better protection to the rights of witnesses.

Since the Rules Committee is conducting an extensive investigation of its own along this line, Jenner said, he wanted to interrogate Watkins about the proposed changes. He said he thought the Senate would prefer to act on the

Belgian Tourist Bus Crashes; 16 Killed, 20 Hurt

VALKENBURG, Netherlands (AP)—A Belgian tourist bus plunged out of control down one of Holland's few steep hills Wednesday, crashed into a street monument and cafe and killed 16 persons. Twenty other persons were injured. First reports said the brakes failed as the bus started down the hill.

Report of his committee rather than the recommendations submitted by the Watkins group.

EGG FUTURES HIT NEW LOWS

CHICAGO (AP)—All egg futures contracts declined to new lows since 1941 in active dealings on the Mercantile Exchange Wednesday. Final prices were down 45 to 65 points, October 27.10 cents a dozen.

Brokers attributed the weakness in part to renewed easiness in cash egg prices, heavy supplies of shell eggs and reduced buying prices by the Army. Cash prices were unchanged to 2 cents a dozen lower, selling from 20 cents to 46 cents a dozen, depending upon grade.

Guy E. Tate Is Dead

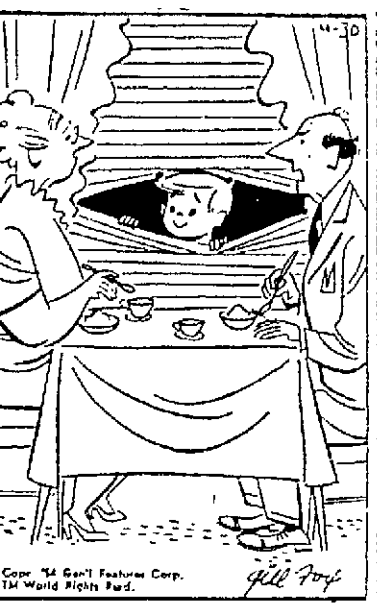

PAPILLION, Neb. (AP)—Guy E. Tate, 77, Sarpy County attorney from 1939 to 1947, died in an Omaha hospital after a brief illness.

'PACHUCO' SLASHES COP, SAYS HE IS 'ENTITLED' TO COMMIT CRIMES

CHICAGO (INS)—A Chicagovan wearing Pachuco tattoos slashed a policeman with a razor blade in court Wednesday and told municipal Judge Stanley Pulaski that the mark "entitles" him to commit crimes.

Manuel Gonzales, 23, said he was trying to "cut my own throat." Policeman James Winke, 32, of the Warren Avenue district was cut on a finger of the right hand, Gonzales said.

"I wanted to cut my own throat. I knew you'd cut it anyway by sending me to prison."

Winke was slashed in snatching the blade from the prisoner. Gonzales had been brought into the court with a charge of disorderly conduct against him.

The razor blade episode prompted Judge Pulaski to change the
